Chapter 1 by Rix Quill

Ellie awoke. She stumbled sleepily down stairs, pulling her dressing gown on.

She roughly tossed some cornflakes into a bowl, spilling some on to the table. In the spillage near the bowl something moved. Not a cornflake - cornflakes don't have two long antennae.

Ellie noticed some movement again through the corner of her sleepy eyes. "What the hell . . . " And as she went to pick up the item, it really wriggled from being on its back to standing on all its legs. The monster noticed Ellie and ran towards her.

"These free gifts are so realistic," she said, popping a few of the crispy brown flakes into her mouth.
